Practice Blackout For Coast Counties Tuesday Night

Final Pre-Announced Black-Out—Signals Have Been Changed—Public Should Acquaint Themselves with New Signals—All Future Blackouts To Be Surprise

A practice Black-Out for the three Mississippi Coast counties has been called for next Tuesday night by the state office of Civilian Defense.

This will be the final pre-announced blackout, it was pointed out and those held in the future will be surprise or unannounced.

The first siren sounding the "blue" or alert signal which is a steady blast for approximately two minutes will be at 8:45. This will be followed 15 minutes later by the "red" or air raid signal which is a series of short blasts by the sirens and means that all lights must go out and traffic cease.

This total blackout is scheduled to last for 25 minutes with the second "blue" signal coming at 9:25 and the all clear at 9:35.

A. E. Cox chief air raid warden for Hancock County today called a meeting for next Monday night of all air raid wardens and other branches of civilian defense to be held at the courthouse to lay final plans for the practice blackout.

In order that the public may thoroughly understand the significance of the signals and just what to do during the blackout, Mr. Cox explains the new signals as follows:

First sound of siren—Put out all street lights, residential lights and business lights. In actual raid threat it would mean planes are coming this way, prepare for air raid. Automobiles can continue to travel cautiously with lights on low beam. People walking can continue but watch for air raid.

Second sound of siren—Complete blackout. All cars stop and put out lights. Pedestrians get off streets. In actual war-fare it would mean planes are overhead and immediate air raid imminent.

Third sound of siren—Go back to where you were after the sound of first siren. In actual war-fare it would mean planes are gone but danger of coming back. Leave street lights, residential and business lights off. Cars can move slowly again. People can start walking again but watch for return of planes.

Fourth sound of siren—All clear. Planes have gone and all considered safe. Turn all lights back on and return to normal.

First sound—One steady blast for two minutes.

Second sound—Series of short blasts for two minutes.

Third sound—One steady blast for two minutes.

Fourth sound—Ten seconds on and ten seconds off for two minutes.

If planes should return after third sound of siren the second sound will be made again.

AT FORT RILEY

HERMAN J. FAYARD

Herman J. "Pete" Fayard, son of Judge and Mrs. Henry Fayard is stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas. Judge and Mrs. Fayard have another son, Elton, in the United States Navy, who is taking advanced training at the University of Minnesota.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC

Due to July 4 falling on Sunday this year the Monday following will be observed as a legal holiday in Bay St. Louis. It was announced today by Mayor G. Y. Blaise and the City Commissioners.

The regular Monday garbage collections will be deferred till Tuesday, July 6, and residents are urged to govern themselves accordingly and not put out garbage over the holiday season.

OSMOND CARL OLSON DIED TUESDAY IN OREGON

Recently Visited Family
In Bay St. Louis—Death
Believed To Have Been Sudden

Osmond Carl Olson died Tuesday morning, June 22 in Hines, Oregon, according to a wire received here by Mrs. Olson on Tuesday.

Mr. Olson has been in Hancock County for several years with the supervisory department of the Hines Lumber Company and had recently spent a month here with his family. Mrs. Olson and her daughter had both received cheerful chatty letters from him on Monday so it is supposed that he died suddenly.

Mr. Olson was a native of Oslo, Norway, and had been a citizen of the United States for 40 years. He was with the Hines Lumber Company in this county for more than 20 years and when the plant moved to Hines he went with them.

He leaves his wife the former Miss Jessie Beardman; two daughters, Mrs. Frank VanDevender and Miss Lillian Olson of this city; a son, William Boardman Olson, U. S. Navy, San Diego, who is enroute home.

Mr. Olson's body was being sent to Bay St. Louis but no funeral arrangements can be made until further notice.

The Echo extends to the family its deepest sympathy.

SEVENTY-ONE CAMPERS REGISTERED AT CAMP SAINT JOSEPH

Camp Activities and Weekly Programs Well Planned And Executed

It was the writer's privilege to be present on Saturday evening at St. Joseph Academy when the 71 campers registered there were putting on their regular weekly program.

There was a group of happy children putting their best into a program which, as was discovered, was prepared in a few days time. It would be unfair to designate any one number on the program for each feature was interesting and clever and showed that the campers were enjoying it too.

As an audience the sisters and the Mother Superior looked on and their faces showed the keen enjoyment that was furnished them by this youthful group.

Then came the awards accompanied by the usual applause which were given to the winners of the following tournaments: Ping-Pong, Sylvia Hernandez; Badminton, Mary Elizabeth Coppernux; Archery, Joanna Bandillo; Tennis, Sylvia Hernandez; Horse-Shoes, Helen Hatfield; Darts, Pauline Musso.

Swimming champions, Betsy Claitor, Group 1; Joan Saurage, group 2; Ray Sonnier, group 3; Kay Sonnier, group 4; Runners up: Joyce Simon and Nellie Claire Maestri.

On another occasion the writer looked in on the campers at breakfast and to use the words of Eddie Cantor, "did they eat." Health producing foods were fast disappearing and it did not take the imagination of Oppenheim to know that after a day's activities these vigorous appetites were always evident.

The older group of the campers recently enjoyed an over night camp at the farm of the A. G. Favres located on Dunbar Avenue with their counselors. It is needless to say that the evening will be long remembered because the Favre farm is always an assurance of a good time.

Some of the campers left after the first two weeks but others have taken their places for it is such a safe and restful place for your little daughter to be these hot summer days.

HOSE SHIPPED TO NEW YORK

Mrs. George R. Rea, director OGD has released the information that the office shipped this week 117 pounds of Nylon and silk hose to the New York Center. Mrs. Rea and her co-workers take this opportunity of thanking the public for the splendid cooperation received in this drive for discarded hose.

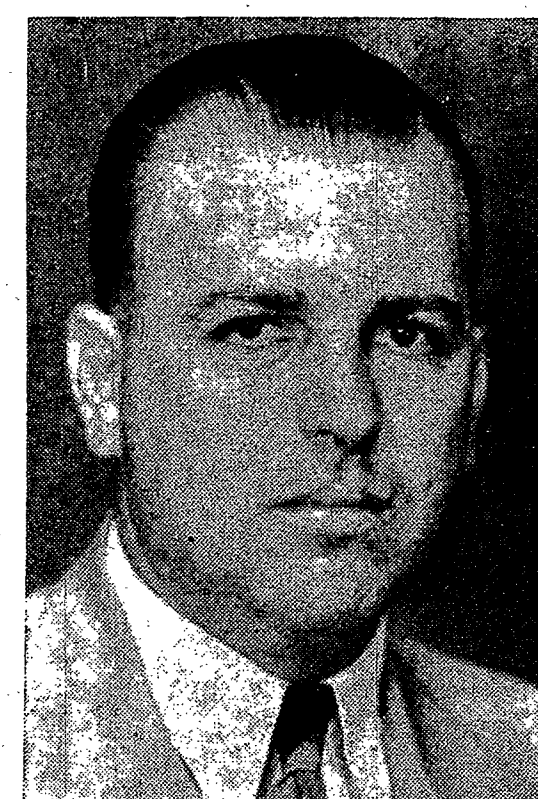

TACONI ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

For County Superintendent Of Education—Issues Statement

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of Nolan Taconi, for County Superintendent of Education, in Hancock County.

To the Voters of Hancock County;

At the request of so many of my friends from every part of Hancock County, I take this means of announcing my candidacy for County Superintendent of Education. Being a college graduate and teaching for seven years in three of Hancock County's High Schools, my last three years of teaching serving as superintendent of Dedeaux High School, I feel that I am well qualified to serve as County Superintendent of Education. My teaching record in the County schools speaks for itself.

Due to rationing and the fact that so many of our men and women are in defense work it will be impossible for me to see every voter. Should I fail to see you I take this means in soliciting your vote and support.

Sincerely,
NOLAN E. TACONI.

LOCAL MERCHANTS OBSERVING CEILING PRICE SCHEDULES

A check-up this week of grocery stores in Bay St. Louis by a volunteer committee of ladies for the Hancock County War Price and Rationing Board showed that virtually all merchants were observing ceiling price schedules on items sold.

The 11-member group of women checked 15 of the retail stores and found that only 16 items were overpriced. Each merchant is required to keep a ceiling price list on all items posted in order that customers may know what price they are to pay and shoppers are urged to consult these ceiling price lists to make sure that they are not being over charged, it was stated by officials of the county Rationing Board today.

The ladies composing the price panel who checked the stores the past week were as follows: Mrs. George R. Rea, Mrs. Sarah A. Power, Mrs. Roger Boh, Mrs. J. B. Goldman, Mrs. John A. Green, Jr., Mrs. Douglas Bourgeois, Mrs. Townsend Wolfe, Mrs. Roland Weston, Mrs. P. R. Curran, Mrs. H. Grady Perkins, Mrs. Van Devender.

DISTRICT MEETING OF WOMENS SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The district meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service was held at the Main Street Methodist Church on Wednesday with Mrs. John Ciriot of Pascagoula, district secretary, presiding.

Mrs. E. E. McKeithen conference chairman Spiritual Life opened the meeting with a devotional and made the closing talk.

The main talks of the morning were made by Mrs. W. F. Mahaffey conference president and Mrs. L. O. Todd conference treasurer. Mrs. L. J. Power also made a short talk.

Miss Ina Thompson of Moss Point, district chairman life membership, addressed the group on life memberships and their significance. This was followed by the conferring of two life memberships from the local organization. The presentation was made to Mrs. Isabelle Joyner and Mrs. E. S. Drake by Mrs. C. C. McDonald.

In presenting the first Mrs. McDonald said that in this age of emergency it is refreshing and comforting to have in our society one who has been a resident of this city for many years and who has stood for continuity and stability in the society and it is a privilege and pleasure to present to Mrs. Joyner this life membership pin.

Mrs. McDonald said that it was not possible for Mrs. Drake to be present but that it was well known what the Drake family had meant to Methodism and what Mrs. Drake had meant to the society. She reminded the group that it was always Mrs. Drake who said she thought that the pledge to missions was the first consideration of the society and then if there were money funds available it might be spent for other needs. She said that it was always Mrs. Drake who finds time to welcome new comers to the town and visit the sick when other members felt they could not find the time. It is with deep appreciation that I present the life membership pin to Mrs. Drake.

Societies represented were Logtown, Long Beach, Gulfport, two churches, and Bay St. Louis.

The Bay St. Louis society was host to the visitors and served luncheon in the church school annex.

MISS JOYCE BECKER

ed by Dr. Daley, President of the Board of Directors, when he announced that she was awarded the $100.00 scholarship for highest scholastic honors in the 1943 class and also a $25.00 cash prize as the kindest nurse in the class. Dr. Daley stated Miss Becker had been an exemplary student all through her three years of training and that she was a credit to the institution from which she had graduated upon entering Charity Hospital, namely St. Joseph Academy, where she graduated as valedictorian in the class of 1940.

Besides the honors above conferred upon Miss Becker, she was also elected a delegate to the convention of the National Association of Nursing Education held in Chicago, Illinois, at the Drake Hotel last week, from which she has just returned.

Miss Becker plans to enlist in the United States Corps of Army Nurses early in September.

The graduation exercises were held in the Grand Ball Room of Roosevelt Hotel with impressive services.

BUSINESS MEN MEET WITH DAIRYMEN IN THE INTEREST OF CREAMERY

A number of business men held a meeting Wednesday at the Hancock County courthouse to pledge cooperation with the dairymen of the county who are working toward the establishment of a cooperative creamery at Bay St. Louis.

The meeting was a follow-up to one held last week at Catfish Lake when preliminary steps were taken toward the establishment of a cooperative creamery for the county, which is the largest milk producing county on the Mississippi Coast.

Another joint meeting of the dairymen and business men will be held next Saturday.

ST. STANISLAUS CAMP IN ACTION

The annual summer camp at St. Stanislaus is well under way with five groups of campers enrolled.

In group one a number of boys have passed their swimming tests, horseshoe pitching and boxing tests.

Group two engaged in swimming, volleyball and other sport activities. Horseback riding, softball, fishing and swimming are being enjoyed by group three, four and five.

New Hunting and Fishing Licenses Go Into Effect On July 1st

New hunting and fishing licenses go into effect on July 1 and will be available on or about June 25, it was announced today by Randolph Bourgeois, state game warden for Hancock County.

Persons holding last year's license must obtain renewal license before July 1, it was pointed out and should bring their last year's license retainer along with them. In case the old retainer's lost a fee of 25 cents will be charged for a new one, but persons not having a license last year will not be charged this fee.

The county hunting license fee is $1.25 and the State hunting license fee is $3.25. The resident fishing license is $1.25 and the non-resident license fee is $3.25.

Licenses are available at the Sheriff's office, at Mauffray's Hardware Store at Bay St. Louis or may be purchased from Mr. Bourgeois the game warden.

Major C. P. Watson, of the Internal Security Division, District No. 7 Fourth Service command, visited Bay St. Louis on Thursday of this week. He was here conferring with Civilian Defense authorities relative to the coming practice blackout on next Tuesday and surveying the operations of the Dim Out control in this area.

He has asked the law enforcement authorities to request the motorists to repaint headlights on their cars and trucks to conform with dim-out regulations. On many cars the paint has worn off and this should be replaced. Won't you please check your lights and have them repainted, and in doing so you will be helping the authorities, both Military and Civil. If all will heed this request it will not be necessary for the authorities to make a concerted drive to enforce this regulation, nor will it be necessary for them to embarrass any motorist for failure to comply therewith.

LOCAL ICE MAN SHOOT NEGRO EMPLOYEE OF SCHARFF'S GROCERY

On Monday morning, June 21, Mr. Harry Sumrall owner of the Bay Ice Company shot and killed Albert Rabateau, young negro employee of Scharff's Grocery on Main Street.

The killing occurred in the rear of the grocery and was the aftermath of a disturbance which occurred at the ice plant on Sunday morning between a negro woman and an employee of Mr. Sumrall.

From the reports that we have received, it appears that on Sunday evening Albert Rabateau went to Mr. Sumrall's home to remonstrate with him about the affair that had occurred on Sunday morning. Mr. Sumrall was not at home, and the report is that Rabateau proceeded to express his views to Mrs. Sumrall in rather harsh terms. After he left the Sumrall home, Mrs. Sumrall called her husband, who tried to locate Rabateau, but failing in this, he proceeded on Monday morning to Scharff's Grocery to take the matter up with him and the killing followed.

As we understand, there were no eye witnesses to the shooting and at the preliminary hearing on Monday morning before L. B. Capdepon, Justice of the Peace, no testimony was offered by Mr. Sumrall; hence, the actual details of the killing are not known.

Mr. Sumrall was placed under $5,000.00 bond to await the action of the Hancock County Grand Jury.

Funeral services for Albert Rabateau were held on Monday evening at 5:00 o'clock from his residence on Webb Street, with services at the St. Rose de Lima Church, with burial in St. Mary's Cemetery.

The deceased is survived by his wife and two children; his mother and several brothers and sisters.

SOUTHERN FARM MARKET SURVEY

Harvesting of truck crops, small gardens, and hay moved along rapidly during the last few weeks, and southern farmers are beginning to watch closely the progress of other crops according to the Food Distribution Administration. Tobacco curing has already begun locally in south Georgia. Cotton and peanuts are in good condition.

With a few exceptions, prices of southern fruits and vegetables were well maintained during the past week. Beans advanced sharply on decreased loadings. Mississippi tomatoes were weaker. Georgia peaches still brought prices far above average but were declining as the first straight cars of Hileys started to market. Georgia and Alabama began shipping watermelons; Florida movement peaked with medium to large sizes bringing $675-775 a car. Truck movement of Georgia cantaloupes increased. Movement of Carolina potatoes was heavier; light Virginia shipments were reported; but no volume from most other States was dwindling. South Carolina is becoming active on tomatoes and cucumbers. Louisiana peppers are moving. The okra season in Georgia is in full swing.

Livestock market took a tumble. Cattle prices were set back sharply despite very light receipts. Hogs continued the downward trend begun last week, but southeastern markets suffered less than other areas because of the local scarcity of well-finished hogs. Closing tops were: southeastern soft hog area $14.00; Nashville 5-3.50; Louisville $13.75; Richmond $13.40; North Carolina and Virginia cash buying stations $13.20-$13.40. Spring lambs were steady on Virginia auctions with a top of $15.60; but at Nashville and Louisville the top dropped 50-75c to $15.25. Nashville receipts this week represented about the peak of the season.

Egg prices strengthened further as market receipts continued their essential decrease.

WFA called loans on 1942 corn, and 50 million bushels of feed wheat went on sale, to help relieve the feed shortage. Most southern markets will pay $1.90-1.00 a bushel for feed wheat during June. Bulk Georgia oats are still bringing 85c a bushel in Atlanta.

Cotton prices again tended downward but New York October futures closed on June 18 at 19.87c, about unchanged from the previous Saturday.

Both the Bay St. Louis High School and the St. Stanislaus Bands scored "Superior" ratings this year in the Mississippi High School Music Association. Although no state-wide contest was held this year due to the war situation, an "emergency rating program" was worked out whereby the schools were graded on their year's accomplishments and both Bay High and St. Stanislaus rated "Superior" in the Class C Division.

CLARENCE M. LADNER ANNOUNCES

Candidacy For County Supt.
Of Education.

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of Clarence M. Ladner, for County Superintendent of Education in Hancock County. Mr. Ladner's statement follows.

To the Voters of Hancock County, Miss.

I am very happy to announce my candidacy for the office of County

CLARENCE M. LADNER

Superintendent of Education in Hancock County as I am of a pioneer family of this county and having resided here for all the twenty-eight years of my life, I feel that I am not a stranger to the majority of the people in this county and I sincerely hope to become acquainted and known to the few whom I have not yet had the pleasure of meeting.

Due to the existing emergency and my part in the war effort, I fear it will be impossible for me to contact every voter of the county personally and discuss with each of them the problems and solutions now facing our educational system so I am, using this medium of presenting my candidacy to the voters of Hancock County.

I was born and reared in this county and educated in its schools. I have also taught three (3) terms in one of the county schools. With my education and experience in the business world, I feel that I am fully qualified to discharge the duties of the office to which I aspire and if I am elected I will discharge these duties honestly, conscientiously and efficiently "with justice to all and malice toward none." My promise to the population of this county is that I will do everything the duties of this office will permit to give the educable boys and girls of this county every advantage of an education so as to prepare them to take their places in the world of tomorrow. With this thought in mind I sincerely solicit your vote and influence in the August Primary. Remember, voters, a vote for me is a vote for your boys and girls.

Respectfully,
CLARENCE M. LADNER.

ABOUT THE ITALIAN SURRENDER

THREE years ago Mussolini stabbed France in the back and declared that Italy would restore her ancient empire and safeguard her routes in the Mediterranean.

He has lost his colonies and the sea is a British lake. The island of Pantelleria surrenders without any Italian warship making a move in its defense.

The only question left in the war for the Italians is how long they will last. The conclusion is foregone and it is up to them to determine how and when they will get out of the fight.

Italy was the birthplace of modern Fascism. Its surrender would indicate the futility of Mussolini's system and serve notice upon the world that Hitlerism is unable to protect its friends. The damage to Axis morale would, no doubt, be irreparable.

Italy's surrender would be a confession of the weakness of the Fascist government, and cause the withdrawal of Italian troops from the Balkans, thus placing another strain upon Germany's exhausted manpower reserves. It would have great effect in Hungary, Bulgaria and Rumania and open an easy way into the heart of the Balkan peninsula.

The task of feeding 45,000,000 Italians would be onerous but, after some reflection we must realize that this job will have to be assumed, sooner or later. If it comes now, following surrender, it will be no greater strain than if it comes later, after heavy fighting.

There is the possibility that the surrender of Italy would give the United Nations sites for air bases with which to spread the bombardment of Germany. This would mean that Italian soil would be the scene of some fighting, perhaps, as the Germans would probably make a strenuous effort to prevent the allies from utilizing Italian airports.

KAISER DELEGATES AUTHORITY

THE amazing industrial empire that has been created by Henry J. Kaiser employs a quarter of a million persons and includes a wide diversity of enterprise.

Recently, Mr. Kaiser said that the organization included the largest cement plant in the world, two asphalt plants, a dozen or fifteen large concrete plants, a calcining dolomite plant, a ferro-silicon plant, a steamship line, two magnesium plants, several chemical by-products plants, a large compensation insurance company, seven hospitals, a group of aviation plants, the largest sand and gravel plant, a big iron and fabricating steel plant, a powder plant and more than eight shipyards.

The reader may wonder how Mr. Kaiser manages to keep up with the huge industrial system. The answer is that he does not. He explains it rather easily, saying, "It really isn't much of a problem if you are willing to give other people responsibility and authority."

The sentence contains valuable information to individuals attempting to control diverse enterprises. No one man can keep up with any great mass of details without becoming hopelessly involved, but business develops into large operations when executives delegate responsibility and authority to competent assistants.

"GREATEST NAVAL WAR IN HISTORY"

SECRETARY of the Navy Frank Knox insists that there are eight fronts, not one, in the present war. He lists the Western Mediterranean, Eastern Mediterranean, the Atlantic, the South-Atlantic, North Pacific, North Pacific, Russia and China. Mr. Knox says that on six of these fronts, the use of a fleet is required and asserts that this "is the greatest naval war in history."

Mr. Knox calls attention to the fact that, after the last war, we "voluntarily scrapped 800,000 tons of the best fighting ships built or building in the illusory hope that in disarmament there was security and peace."

The nation now realizes, as Mr. Knox asserts, "what a mistake that was," but there is no certainty that the people of the United States will not swing back to isolation and foolish economy when the present war ends.

It is essential, if we are to have peace, that the United States, along with other United Nations, possess such fighting strength as to serve effective notice upon all aggressors that resort to war will be fatal.

Many men, who are failures at their jobs, would do exceptional work in other occupations.

Too much talking and too little thinking accounts for some of the troubles that beset mankind.

The Japanese tell their people that the war is in a serious stage and urge them to prepare for a long struggle.

Housewives, who are looking far enough ahead, will take this summer to can something to eat next winter.

ADVISORY BOARD OF EXTENDED SCHOOL SERVICE MEETS

Plans Reopening of Nursery School Next Week

The advisory board of the Extended School Service for Bay St. Louis, met on Tuesday afternoon at Bay High with Miss Florence Jennings, director presiding. There were present Mesdames F. J. Nelson, Eugene Mogabgab, Harold B. Weston, C. C. McDonald and Miss May H. Edwards.

The Nursery School which opened under the WPA and closed when the WPA was liquidated has re-opened with financial aid from the Lanham fund.

Added to this unit of extended school service is the unit of school age children from 6 to 14 and this includes the children whose parents are employed and who, if it were not for this provision would be compelled to follow their own devices from early morning until such time as their parents returned from work. This group is under the direction of Miss Mary Perkins.

This is one of the biggest opportunities yet offered a people by the government and one that is especially important because it takes care of their most precious possessions—the children.

The extended school service includes not only the children of mothers engaged in defense plants but mothers employed that men in civilian occupation may be released for war work. Also mothers who are greatly needed in the business where clerks or other personnel have been taken into service with the armed forces. How much better service a working woman can give when she is assured that her children are safe for the day—cared for and fed and playing under the supervision of a competent person specially trained in that field of work.

Visit the group of school age children occupied at the Bay St. Louis Central School. Visit the Webb School and see what is being done for the pre-school age children. Are the children of your town a wise investment for your money? That is for you to decide but it is worth thinking about.

This same opportunity is being offered the Negro children and most of the requirements have been met by them. The enrollment is sufficient, the faculty has been selected and space has been provided and the opening is only deferred because of the delay in some extra work to be done on the rooms and the material has been delayed in reaching here.

It is planned to open the Nursery school at least next week and it is hoped that both units will be opened.

For further information see Miss Jennings, general director, Mr. Ingram, superintendent, Mrs. Jean May, head of the Nursery School or any member of the advisory board.

RED CROSS CAMP AND HOSPITAL GROUP MEETS AT GULFPORT

Plans For Securing Hospital Equipment and Recreation Facilities Completed

Red Cross Camp and Hospital Council leaders of Harrison, Hancock and Pearl River Counties, in meeting Wednesday at the Station Hospital Red Cross Recreational Hall of Gulfport Field, Army Air Forces Technical Training Command School for airplane mechanics, heard reports indicating the success of their activities in this area during the past and made plans for future work.

The Council, which provides supplementary equipment, supplies and services that may be needed in carrying out the responsibilities of the Army and Navy when such items are not available or cannot be secured from official sources in time to meet the need, provides a channel where recreational items may be contributed to Gulfport Field, the U. S. Naval Advance Depot in Gulfport, the Coast Guard Base in Gulfport, the U. S. Merchant Marine Basic School at Pass Christian, the Engineers' Battalion at Bay St. Louis, Cat Island and the A. and R. Area in Gulfport.

Daniel Vaughn, Red Cross Field Director for Gulfport Field, reported that the Council has received, during the month of May, a truckload of furniture and recreational equipment from the Hancock County chapter. Various chapters in the area have arranged subscriptions to popular magazines in order to provide modern reading equipment for hospitalized reading personnel.

1st Lt. Byron R. Kantrow, Public Relations Officer of Gulfport Field, outlined the need for day-room furniture and recreational equipment at Gulfport Field. Quotas were then assigned and items accepted included 10 layettes for the new maternity ward of the Gulfport Field Station Hospital, six annual subscriptions to popular magazines, 600 fiction books, 100 mathematics textbooks, 200 recordings, one dozen assorted games and puzzles, two dozen popular song sheets and various other items.

Edson McCabe, of Gulfport, chairman of the Council, presided at the meeting. Others attending included Dana King, of Gulfport, treasurer; Mrs. Leo Seal, vice chairman of Hancock County; Miss Mary Aline Willis, field representative for the Red Cross in Gulfport; Mrs. Aileen Little, of Gulfport, executive secretary of the Harrison County chapter; Miss Bessie Scarborough, of Poplarville, Miss., executive secretary of the Pearl River county chapter; Mrs. Moody and Mrs. Carver, representatives of the Junior Red Cross unit of Pearl River county; Mrs. Bea and Miss Spalding, of Hancock County, and representing the Pass Christian branch of the Harrison county chapter, Mrs. W. G. Simpson and Mrs. L. H. Barksdale.

VICTORY GIRLS OF 1943

The Charity Hospital of Louisiana is recruiting 275 young women, high school graduates, to enroll as student nurses. Training will begin this fall—one-half of the class will be admitted in September and the second half of the class in January. This year's class has been named the "Victory Class" and has been dedicated to the spirit of Victory as symbolized by General Chenault's Flying Tigers.

The young women of the South are offered no greater opportunity than that provided by the Charity Hospital School of Nursing. The position of a professional nurse in the young women's world today has few equals. Graduates of the Charity Hospital School of Nursing are qualified to receive commissions in the Army or Navy. Our Army and Navy nurses wear the trim officers' uniforms with a greater pride than the uniform worn in any branch of the service.

A career of nursing also has its best time rewards. The average young woman, practicing as a professional nurse, earns more than other girls of the same age. Graduate nurses are offered executive positions in Public Health, in industrial establishments, as members of the staff of hospitals, in nursing schools, and in many other fields.

The young women who enter Charity's new Victory Class will be assured that nothing will interrupt her education. Even if the war is won before she graduates, the training will continue. Graduates from the Charity Hospital School of Nursing can receive credit at Louisiana State University for the units of study completed at the hospital and can continue their studies at Louisiana State University to win university degrees.

The education that a young woman receives at the Charity Hospital School of Nursing includes a foundation for a strong Christian character. The nurse is taught principles of correct moral conduct and how to preserve her faith in God, in country, and in her fellow man. These lessons build character, and make the graduate nurses who marry, outstanding wives, mothers, and citizens.

Scholarships and Loan Funds are available for those unable to meet the entrance fees.

If you are a young woman, if you want to join the Victory Class, write today to the School of Nursing, Charity Hospital of Louisiana at New Orleans. Complete information and application blanks pertaining to the new Victory Class will be mailed to you.

Requirements for entrance are that the applicant be between 17 and 30 years of age and a high school graduate.

LIMIT NEW TIRES TO 'MOST ESSENTIALS' URGES O. P. A.

All Motorists Should Have Worn Tires Recapped

Due to an "extremely critical situation in tire supplies," the OPA has announced that new tires will be available now to only the most essential drivers. At the same time, ration boards were instructed to limit the issuance of tire purchase certificates for new tires to a small percentage of drivers.

"All motorists should recap worn tires, or take other steps for lengthening the life of their present tires," OPA officials said, "as the tire supply is so short that boards have been instructed not to issue certificates."

for new tires even to essential drivers if their old tires are recappable. All but a small percentage of drivers will have to get through 1943 and perhaps part of 1944 with their old tires before synthetic rubber tires are available, officials said, as military needs must be met before the synthetic rubber can go to civilians.

The regional OPA office in Jackson advised that Grade 1 (new) tire quotas will probably fall far short of the demand for the next few months, and that ration boards should "scan applications even more closely" and issue certificates only to those engaged in vital war work.

Following is the letter of instructions addressed to all ration boards in this district:

"Effective immediately boards should allot tires to essential workers on the basis of not more than half of the number applied for. In many instances one tire only should be granted where application is made for three tires. The application should then be sent to file a new application in not less than 60 days. No improvement in the situation is expected before that time."

Prominent Doctor Dies

The death of Dr. F. E. Redfield of Jackson on Tuesday of last week took away a very valuable man—fine physician and surgeon and high class citizen. Dr. Redfield was a native of Carroll County where he was born about 63 years ago. More than half of his mature years were spent in Jackson and he had a large practice. He was a leader in the Presbyterian Church and active in civic affairs.

Barnett President Bar Association

Ross Barnett of Jackson was elected president of the Mississippi Bar Association at the annual meeting in Meridian last week. Mr. Barnett came to the Capitol City from Leake County and has built up a fine law practice.

Secretary National Democratic Committee

George Ed Allen, native of Mississippi now residing in Washington, was born and reared in Booneville, a son of the late Sam Allen, prominent lawyer of that town, and a nephew of the late "Private" John Allen, who served 16 consecutive years in congress from the first district. Mr.

PARTY LINE
telephone courtesy certainly pays extra dividends these days when so many families are sharing lines with their neighbors.

When party line neighbors are considerate of each other, the telephone service of all is improved. And when neighbors avoid tying up their line with lengthy conversations, they help relieve busy central office equipment so that vital war calls can be handled faster. Here are some other friendly suggestions that will mean better service for you, your telephone neighbor and Uncle Sam:

- 1—Answer calls promptly—and before you call, make sure the line is not in use.
- 2—Make fewer calls and when you do call, be as brief as possible.
- 3—Avoid tying up the line by making a series of calls at one time.
- 4—And please be careful to hang up your receiver when you finish talking. When a party line telephone receiver is left off the hook, no one on the line can make or receive calls until the receiver is put back on the hook.

At the front, teamwork wins battles. At home, the same spirit of personal cooperation results in better telephone service—for you, your party line neighbor and your entire community.

Underground Vs. Nazis—
Featuring Errol Flynn,
Anne Sheridan

Get geared for a big one. It's heading your way in "Edge of Darkness."

Here is as astute a job as the fast-stepping Warner brothers have turned out in recent days, and their recent days require no recital. The studio acquired the novel of the same name by William Woods and turned it over to Henry Blanke, the man who made "Zola" and "Pasteur." It aimed at the mar-quees by casting Errol Flynn and Anne Sheridan in the romantic leads and almost engulfed them in fast supporting company composed of Helmut Dantine, Walter Huston, Ruth Gordon, Judith Anderson, Nancy Coleman, Morris Carnovsky, John Beal, Charles Dingle and Roman Bohnen. Robert Rossen on the script, Lewis Meston on the direction and Sid Hickox behind the cameras rounded out the production assignments, performed on their end with distinction.

Out of this assemblage and a story of inflamed passions comes "Edge of Darkness." It is another in the rapidly-growing series of pictures dealing with Nazi invasion hordes and the underground movements springing up against them in all countries writhing under the conqueror's heel. This one selects a small fishing village in Norway where the civilian population is quickly moving toward its breaking point. There have been acts of sabotage against the rule of the German garrison. Fish in the cannery have been poisoned, wires have been cut. But this is the beginning. Bidding their day under the leadership of Flynn, the villagers finally learn the British are landing arms up and down the coast in an organized strategy to spark the seething underground movement into open flame. After heartbreaking wait, this village, too, gets its rifles, sub-machine guns and hand grenades.

The emotional cross-play between the patriotic Norwegians and their local quislings and between the natives and their military overlords is developed and handled with incisive and biting force.

But "Edge of Darkness" is not a tea party. It is an icy shower turned loose on audiences in the interest of driving home—and hard—what this war is about.

NEW POSTAL REGULATIONS

Lollie B. Wright, Postmaster at Logtown, Miss., requests that those people, who send letters to their friends in large cities note the new postal regulations.

Each large city has a number of branch offices, now each branch office has been given a number after the name of the large city, as New Orleans 10 or Boston 8. The rest of the address will be the same. An example of the new type of address is:

John C. Smith
222 Manhattan Ave.,
Boston, 8
Mass.

Residents of small towns should inquire of their correspondents in the large cities concerning the number assigned to the city residents' branch post office as the degree to which mail will be speeded depends upon the extent to which the numbers are used by mailers.

Please do your part by securing those new numbers and using them as soon as possible.
For additional information consult Lollie B. Wright.

The I & N can prosper only as its territory prospers. Consequently, business reasons actuate it to encourage Southern industrial development, which in recent years has surpassed all other sections of the Nation. Freight rates and service are directed to that end.

The Southern freight rate structure is greatly misunderstood, and hence receives unwarranted criticism. This statement is not to argue with those who publicly criticize the rate structure, but to assure industry it will not be discriminated against—it will be supported. The major effort of railroads is now to win the war. Therefore, "The Old Reliable" will resume its primary purpose of aiding in the inevitable development of the South.

ORTTE THEATRE SUNDAY-MONDAY "DR. GILLESPIE'S NEW ASSISTANT"

Matinee Sunday at 3:30—
Monday at 5 P. M.

Medicine and mystery, psychology and good old-fashioned sleuthing combine in M-G-M's "Dr. Gillespie's New Assistant" to produce one of the most entertaining pictures of the present series.

Seen Sunday and Monday at Ortte Theatre, the new offering presents the perennial Lionel Barrymore as the kindly doctor, with Keye Luke, Von Johnson and Richard Quine as three strivers for the post of his needed assistant. To test their ability, he details them to the handling of a puzzling case, one that so far has not responded to medical treatment.

The patient is the very competent and good-looking Susan Peters. Indications are that she is being groomed for stardom as producers have been allotting her increasingly responsible roles. Miss Peters is seen as a young bride, the sufferer from the unascertained ailment, and who, in Dr. Gillespie's efforts to aid her, is eventually forced to admit that her illness was feigned, and that she adopted his device to conceal what she had imagined to be a dark episode in her life.

The three assistants all prove equally capable and Dr. Gillespie as the picture closes with the solution of the mystery and a happily-ever-after promise for Miss Peters and her husband, cannot decide which of the trio will be his permanent aid. The subject was directed by William Goldbeck. The cast, in addition to those already named, includes Alma Kruger, Horace McNally, Nat Pendleton, Walter Kingsford, and other favorites of the established characters of the series.

Meet Critical War Program * *

MANY home owners have been postponing re-roofing and re-siding to their homes because of their fear that on a temporary basis materials would be available. Many others have obtained the impression that to have such work done would be contrary to the interest of winning the war.

If your home needs re-roofing, if the sidewalls need painting or repair, a special W. P. B. ruling just issued removes the restrictions on the use of asbestos shingles for this purpose. There is no longer any reason for you to postpone having this work done.

Pre-War Quality — Pre-War Prices

Johns-Manville Asbestos Shingles are manufactured to the same fireproof, durable quality standards as before the war. They are available at pre-war prices, too.

If your home needs painting or repair, we recommend J-M Asbestos Siding Shingles. They need no preservative treatment—are fireproof—permanent as stone—and will completely transform the appearance of your home. If you need a new roof, we recommend J-M Asbestos Roofing Shingles. They have the same testable maintenance-free qualities.

Protect your home for today and for the future. We will be glad to show you samples of the new styles and new textures of these colorful shingles.

Long asbestos spinning fibre is an essential material in many war products. In mining asbestos, for every ton of long asbestos fibre, many tons of shorter fibre must be produced. This shorter fibre must be utilized, and its principal use is in the manufacture of asbestos shingles. Restrictions were therefore lifted to increase the use of asbestos shingles and thereby insure an adequate supply of long asbestos fibre vitally needed for war.

Cost of War Weapons

A sizable portion of the gigantic cost of waging a war is attributable to the outlay of money for the necessary weapons to wage that war. While it is true that since America is furnishing a large portion of the planes, guns and tanks for herself and her Allies, and this mass production causes some decline in the prices of these articles, the facts that (1) models in weapons change constantly, (2) there are constant shifts in demands of the military authorities for various weapons, and (3) constant increases in labor and material costs have offset much of what we might assume we could save through volume production. The following prices of various war weapons as compared with the prices of some of the items frequently purchased by civilians in peace-time show what a staggering amount we are spending just for the implements of warfare:

Aircraft Propeller: The price of Army plane propellers is from $1,700 to $3,200—or the equivalent of the cost of a small bungalow or an automobile.

Garand Rifle: These weapons which are used by the millions by our servicemen cost approximately $100.00 each—or enough to cover the cost of a household refrigerator.

Tanks: Even when produced in assembly line quantity, the heavy tank costs about $145,000—or as much as 145 ordinary automobiles. The medium tank costs $85,000, and the small tank about $45,000.

Shells: The shells used each time a battleship fires a broadside from nine 16-inch guns cost $13,500—or the price of a good-sized house and lot.

Battleship: Our largest battleship costs around $97,000,000; the 35,000-ton battleship costs about $85,000,000. (The cost of either is almost as much money as it took to build New York's famous Radio City.)

Aircraft Carrier: The price of this ship is approximately $70,000,000.

Fighter Planes: These small but speedy planes cost from $70,000 to $150,000 each.

Airplane Engines: The present range of plane engines is from $12,000 to $14,000 which is a sharp reduction in the $31,000 cost of these engines a year ago.

Peep: This is the Army's smallest car not nearly as large as the Army's jeep—and costs about $900.

Machine Guns: Prices for these weapons have been reduced considerably by volume production and model changes and cost from $20 to $275.

Silk Parachute: The standard price for this article is $64.

Radio: It costs the astounding sum of $20,000 to equip a large Army or Navy plane with radio.

97 Per Cent Regover
The American Army has the finest and best equipped medical department of any Army in the world, and the records prove it. More than 97 per cent of our wounded men have recovered. The care begins with the soldier himself. He is taught first aid and supplied with a complete first aid packet containing sulfadiazine tablets to be taken internally and a sulfa powder for his wounds to prevent infection. Frequently the wounded from the South Pacific or Africa are flown thousands of miles in 48 to 72 hours after being wounded to an American hospital at home.

Farm Machinery Output Increased

The War Production Board issued regulations covering the expanded production of farm machinery when Chairman Donald M. Nelson allotted 900,000 tons of carbon steel to the farm machinery industry for the 12 months beginning July 1st. WPB said the allotment would permit a boost in farm equipment production to nearly double that of a normal year, though only around 80 percent of the production in the banner year of 1940. The new order permits a producer to make any of the 492 listed machinery and equipment items up to a specified percentage of the total net weight of the product manufactured by him in 1940 or 1941, whichever was higher.

"... SO I TOLD JOE, WE'LL NEVER WIN THIS WAR FEELING THAT WAY "

"It burns me up! To hear some people talk, you'd think this war is something 'not for us'.

"Take Joe, for instance. 'Course, his boy Clem's too young for the service, and he doesn't have any kinkfoks to keep him posted on what our boys are doing 'over there'. But when he told me he couldn't see what we, at home, could do toward winning the war, I told him exactly how I felt.

"I told him that if very many people thought as he did, this war could last months longer, and more of our boys would be killed . . . that we might even lose this war, and with defeat would go all the freedoms we love so dearly.

"Well, that seemed to start him thinking . . . so I told him a few of the ways he could help . . . how his investing in even a $25 War Bond would help some American soldier get the equipment he needs . . . how the old iron and scrap metal around his place would make a couple of machine guns . . . and how important it is to save grease and fats, and grow his own garden so more canned goods can be sent to our armies. 'We've gotta make sacrifices . . . sacrifice until it hurts.' I said, 'if we back up those men at the front who are giving up their lives for us.' Well, maybe I blew off a little steam, but that's the way I feel. And now, I'm sure Joe agrees with me."

Have You an Electrical Appliance That Doesn't "Work" but MIGHT

For some time we have offered a free listing service designed to aid prospective sellers and prospective buyers of used electric appliances.

Because of the scarcity of all kinds of appliances, we now offer our electric customers an expanded listing service covering electrical appliances which for some reason won't "work." We believe this service can be useful in the war effort and helpful to those we serve.

If you have an appliance, such as an electric refrigerator, range, iron, percolator, fan, or any other equipment which for some reason ceased to meet your needs and you just replaced it and put it away without trying to have it repaired—this listing service may help you realize something from the idle unit and at the same time help meet the urgent need of others who cannot obtain such equipment. Perhaps such a unit can be repaired on a practical basis that will permit its restoration to service.

The listing of this equipment is a free service and assisting buyers and sellers in locating each other will be the extent of our service. In the case of equipment needing repair, and for which any needed parts are obtainable, the Company's service department will be available to either buyer or seller on the usual commercial basis.

For listing any equipment, we invite you to simply phone or drop by our nearest office.

Pete Swanson fancies himself as an armchair strategist. Sometimes he gets so tangled up, I just can't resist trying to straighten him out.

For instance, the other day he was waxing indignant about our soldiers being allowed to buy beer right in camp. Said that was just coddling the troops and would ruin discipline.

I told him the actual facts had already been established by a study the Government made. Their report said chaplains and the military police agree that instead of ruining discipline, 3.2 beer sold in Army camps provides our soldiers with a mild form of relaxation without impairing their efficiency.

Well, Pete allowed that the chaplains and military police are a pretty good authority on what's right for soldiers. I've noticed lately he's been confining his remarks to the broader phases of strategy.

ENTERTAINED ON FOURTH BIRTHDAY

Monday, June 21, marked the fourth birthday of E. J. Lacoste III, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lacoste II.

E. J.'s mother entertained for him at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. J. Gex, in Court street where she is visiting.

Mrs. Lacoste was assisted in entertaining by her sister Mrs. H. Grady Perkins and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Lacoste, Sr., and her mother Mrs. E. J. Gex.

Those enjoying the large birthday cake and all the good things which go to make up a real birthday party were Temple and Grady Perkins, Kinta Kergosien, Linda Breath, Walter Gex, III, and Gail Garner, Jimmie and Patsy Shadoin, Janet and Helen Genin, Elmo Blaize, Jr., Sue Mauffray, Brenda Kergosien, John Glover and Carol Horton.

The young honoree's father could not be with him as he was detained in Hot Springs, Ark., where the family now make their home. It so happens that E. J. III has celebrated each of his four birthdays in a different town.

—L. S. Elliott, linotype operator for the Sea Coast Echo for the past 14 years, attended a one-day school for operators and machinists at the New Orleans Mergenthaler Linotype plant. The school was of a review nature and proved of much value to the men attending.

—The King Daughters Hospital sponsors will give a cake walk on Friday night, July 2 at 8 o'clock, on North Beach opposite the Gulf Chevrolet Company place of business. The public is invited to attend. Any one desiring to donate a cake for this benefit should call 346.
